VQF Challenge It's Soooo Me!

Hello Barbara,

Every quilt has a story and this carryall quilt has one as well.

The "Jet-Setter" was born on May 15, 2009 in a new quilt shop, "Orange Quilt Bee" in Orange County, CA. I spent one week vacationing in their quilt shop and you guessed it... not once did you find me poolside nor did I visit Mickey who was just down the street at Disneyland. encouragement from fellow quilters; it is off to your New VQF Challenge: "It's Soooo Me!"

Hoping that you will be able to raise some monies for your Education Program and that the Jet-Setter will take its new owner on more fun travels.

*Cheers,
Ariana*
